

Dynamics of Caste, Religion, Culture and Politics: The Struggle of the Namasudras of Bengal, 1872-1971 comprises together multiple dimensions of the history of Namasudras in social, spiritual, cultural, economic, educational and political spheres of Bengal. It aims to stimulate the deprived castes of India to think about their historical contribution despite the domination and exploitation of the privileged castes who are a minority of India. It asserts that the progress of the Namasudras in Bengal, as well as the deprived castes of India, is important to sustain the Indian democracy and national integrity. It procures to bring the substantive status of the deprived castes in the democratic construction of the nation.

aspiration,

For Namasudras
who suffered a lot from social injustice.
